Tom Stahl & The Dangerfields

- This World Right Here -

The bard of Buffalo, singer songwriter Tom Stahl, strikes again with his latest album another eclectic mix of lyrical imagery and memorable melodies and like Shakespeare, Stahl always seems to spot the canker in the rose. Stahl along with his longtime well respected outfit The Dangerfields, Gary Kowalski (drums), Gary Gorski (bass), Mark Stahl (keys) Sam Stahl (guitar) and Jim Whitford (pedal steel) lend solid backing on the eleven tracks. The album was recorded at Audio Magic and Black Rock EPS with Myron Deputat behind the board and producing the disc along with the Dangerfields.

Highlights include the jangly guitar rocker "Spinning Around", "Dad's Song" an ode to Stahl's father and dads everywhere, "I Know Everything", "End of the World Again" in which Stahl waxes poetic and sarcastic about the state of humanity, "With The Out Crowd", "Hang On" and "Long Way Home". Stay tuned for the hidden bonus Christmas track as well.

This World Right Here is another great addition to Stahl's recorded legacy. Check out www.tomstahlandthedangerfields.com or www.facebook.com/TomStahlBand for upcoming shows and how to purchase This World Right Here.
